Examining My Views About Our Church

Take some time as church leaders and initiate the strategic thought process by answering a few questions that reflect your understanding of the purpose, values and vision of the church God has called you to lead.

PURPOSE

1. In your opinion, what is the purpose (or what are the purposes) of a local church?
2. In your opinion, does your church have a distinctive reason for existing as opposed to other local churches nearby (why shouldn't you close the church and go help another good church nearby)?

VALUES

3. In your opinion, what are the three most important activities/programs in your church?
4. In your opinion, what do folks in your church like to do the most when they're together?
5. What kind of changes in a church would cause you to seek another church?

VISION

6. As the Lord leads, and with His gracious help, what would you like your church to accomplish in the next five years?
7. Would you like your church to be different in five years from what it is now? If so, what positive changes would you like to see (limit to your top three)? Is there an area that is most lacking?
